SCOPE AND CONTENT

This collection is composed of materials pertaining to the crew and officers who served aboard USS Monitor and CSS Virginia as well as their descendents. Irwin Berent compiled and generated these materials between 1978 and 1988. This collection is the result of his work on two different, but overlapping groups of projects: the first centers on the crew and officers of said vessels; the second concentrates on their descendents.

The first group of projects concerns Berent's research for biographical works he published on the crew and officers of Monitor and Virginia. Perhaps the most notable among these is Crewmen of the USS Monitor: A Biographical Directory published in 1982. Materials include photocopies of affidavits, clippings, congressional reports, correspondence, death certificates, depositions, marriage certificates, medical records, military records, notes, and pension records from the 1860s through the 1920s that Berent obtained from the United States National Archives and Records Administration. Related notes and correspondence as well as edited and unedited copies of manuscripts are also included.

The second group of projects concerns Berent's work locating descendents of the crew and officers of Monitor and Virginia, his communication with them, and subsequent meetings and events. Materials range in dates from 1978 through 1988 and include clippings, correspondence, mailing lists, and notes. Ephemeral items, lists of attendees, press releases, and transcripts of speeches from events are also included.

BIOGRAPHICAL/HISTORICAL SKETCH

Irwin M. Berent research of the crews and officers of Monitor and Virginia began in 1978, as a volunteer for the Monitor Research and Recovery Foundation in Norfolk, Virginia. In 1980 he agreed to write a biographical guide concerning the crew of USS Monitor. Titled The Crewmen of the USS Monitor: A Biographical Directory, the guide was published in 1982 as part of the NOAA USS Monitor National Marine Sanctuary historical report series. He also went on to organize and host descendants' reunions related events.

In addition to material concerning the Civil War, Berent has published work on a variety of subjects—Jewish genealogy, Jewish history in Chicago and Virginia, social interaction, word origins, drug policy, economic conservatism, and Christian fundamentalism. Berent has also served as the coordinator for the Chicago Jewish Archives' West Rogers Park Records Survey project in Chicago, Illinois, and was the genealogy columnist for the National Jewish Post and Opinion.

His works include: Getting Your Words' Worth (Warner Books, 1993), Weird Words (Berkley Publishing Group, 1995), More Weird Words (Berkley, 1995), and A Dictionary of Highly Unusual Words (Berkley, 1997), as well as an interpersonal communications book (The Right Words, Warner Books, 1992) and The ABC Of Cat Trivia (with Introduction by Betty White; St. Martin's Press, 1996). He has also co-written scholarly works including Fundamentalism: An Analysis of Biblical Inerrancy (Introduction by Isaac Asimov, foreword by Steve Allen, Open Court Publishing, 1988), Drug Legalization: For and Against (with Introduction by Hugh Downs, foreword by Linus Pauling, Open Court, 1992), and The Quotable Conservative (Introduction by William F. Buckley; Adams Publishing Co., 1996).

This collection is divided into seven (7) series:

- I. Crewmembers
- II. Officers
- III. Unsubstantiated Crewmembers
- IV. Manuscript Materials
- V. Descendents
- VI. Reunions

These series reflect the general order in which Berent received these materials. Some items were loose and were filed with corresponding series. Series I through IV originate from Berent's research for work he published on the crew and officers of Monitor and Virginia. Series V and VI are from Berent's work locating descendents of the crew and officers of Monitor and Virginia, his communication with them, and subsequent meetings and events. Series VII applies to both groups of projects.

Series I: Crewmembers

This series features materials concerning crewmembers of Monitor and Virginia. Arranged alphabetically by vessel name and thereunder alphabetically by crewmember's last name. Comprised of photocopies of affidavits, congressional reports, death certificates, depositions, marriage certificates, medical records, military records, notes, and pension records, the majority of which Berent obtained from the US National Archives and Records Administration. Also includes photocopies of entries from Register of Officers of the Confederate States Navy as well as clippings and correspondence.

The title of the first piece was changed and published as The Crewmen of the USS Monitor: A Biographical Directory in 1982. The second piece was submitted to publishers, but was not published.

This series features materials on the descendents of crewmembers and officers aboard Monitor and Virginia. Also features materials concerning the descendents of those aboard USS Merrimack and an unidentified ironclad vessel. Arranged alphabetically by vessel name and thereunder by crewmember and officer's last names. Comprised of clippings, correspondence, family trees, notes, and a typescript account.
